The declaration in this case was against Stephen S Colmes, and others, who were alleged to have executed the bond sued on. Without over, the defendants pleaded non est factum, upon which plea there was issue. On the trial, the plaintiff offered in evidence a bond signed by Stephen H. Colmes, and others, without proving the identity of Stephen H. and Stephen S. Colmes. Held, that they could not be presumed, without further evidence, to be the same person.

Upon the trial, several witnesses testified that they, with others, met in the seminary, on the night of the 1st day of March, 1849, for the purpose of organizing a division of the Sons of Temperance; that while there, stones and clubs were thrown at the windows, and that the defendant was the person who threw the missiles. The court ins-structed the jury that if they were satisfied that said seminary was, at the time the injury was committed, public prop-erty, or was then occupied or used as a county seminary, by the county, that it was not necessary that it should have been proved that the title to the property was in the county

In this case it appears that William Russell had real estate in which, under the 57th section, his wife, upon a divorce so granted, was entitled to dower, and the decree giving her alimony in lieu of this right was erroneous.

It is suggested by the counsel for the defendant in error that the words " in lieu of dower," when they occur in the decree, may be regarded as surplusage, but this would be doing injustice to the plaintiff in error, as the value of the

Whereas, It is extremely inconvenient for a large portion of the purchase money which shall be retained by the captain for said French. T. B. & A. Crane by T. M. Doughty."

The oral evidence given in this case assuming that it wa properly admitted only raised a question of fact, and the evidence is not such as would justify this court in disturbing the verdict of the jury as being against the weight of evidence, or seversing the judgment for the refusal of the circuit court to give the instructions prayed by the plaintiff.

These was some evidence as to the execution of the draft. One Richard Godwin, a witness, stated that he had heard a conversation between the parties relative to a post office draft, which the plaintiff admitted was unpaid and promised to settle, but could not state for what amount the draft was drawn, nor with certainty when the couver-ation occurred. The plaintiff was a postmaster and the defendant a mail contractor who frequently had such drafts upon the plainduced by the defendant, the court excluded it from the jury.

Held, That there was no error in this. Such a deaft could not be evidence of a demand against the plaintiff unless he had accepted it, or promised to pay it; and the statements of Richard Goodwin were too vague to establish such an acceptance or promise.

No evidence was given of a demand of payment and the court instructed the jury that such a note is not entitled to draw interest until demand made. DR. GUYSOTT -Sir: I tender you my sincere thanks for the great benefit I have derived from the use of your valuable Syrup. I have been troubled very had with a scrofulous sore, which made its appearance on my chin. I did not pay much attention to it at first supposing it to be nothing but some eruption that generally appears on persons' faces. It finally began to increase, until it spread to the back part of my head. I applied to a physician: he attended me all to no purpose. I had tried everything that could be tried. I saw your Syrup of Yellow Dock and Sarsoparilla, and concluded to use it, for I knew that the Yellow Dock was one of the most valuable articles in the world for the blood. I bought your Syrup, and commenced using it, and from the use of one botthe I could see a great change in my system. I continued its use until I am a well man. I now feel like a new person; my blood is perfectly cleared, and free from all impurities. There is not a question but that your newly discovered Compound is far superior

FEMALES. Its mild alterative properties render it peculiarly applicable to the stender and delicate constitution of the female. It is unrivalted in its effect upon such discusses as incipient Consumption, Barrenness, Leucorthoen or Whites, Irregular Menstruation, Incontinuence of Urine, and general prostration of the system. It immediately counteracts that distressin; nervousness and issistude so common to the female frame, and imparts an energy and buoyancy as surprising as they are grateful. We have evidence on file, which induces us strongly to recommend this medicine to married people who have not been blessed with offspring.

In the spring of 1848 I was induced by my friends to try Dr. Guy-sott's Yellow Dock and Sursaparilla which was used for four months.
